

The University Collaborative

Institutional Options Project

Institutions to be Interviewed

1. ACF Stakeholders
2. Chesapeake Bay Program
3. Colorado Law of the River
4. Columbia River Treaty
5. Commission for the Application and Development of the Albufeira Agreement
6. Delaware River Basin Commission
7. Great Lakes Commission
8. Gulf of Maine Council on the Marine Environment
9. Gulf of Mexico Alliance
10. International Commission for the Protection of the Danube River
11. International Commission for the Protection of the Rhine
12. Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin
13. Interstate Environmental Commission
14. Metropolitan Water District of Southern California
15. Missouri River Association of States and Tribes
16. Murray-Darling Basin Authority, AUS
17. Northwest Power and Conservation Council
18. Ohio River Valley Sanitation Commission
19. South Florida Water Management District
20. St. Mary's River Management Committee
21. Susquehanna River Basin Commission
22. Tahoe Regional Planning Agency
23. Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway Development Authority
24. Upper Mississippi River Basin Association

Background Research

- Extensive review of literature
- Creation of working database

Preparations

- Mock interview
- Questions finalized
- IRB Approval

Process

- Interviewers trained
- Memo drafts
- Interviews Began!

Fun Facts

- Murray-Darling Basin
  - Water over-allocated
  - Many years the Murray runs dry before ocean
  - Stakeholder engagement with MDBA
  - Innovative programs
    - buybacks, environmental watering, conservation
  - Now Murray reaches ocean 9 out of 10 years